ALLEGED WHITE SLAVERS

HAVE PRISON RECORDS

TUCSON, Aug. 18.—Both C. W. Garfield and C. H. Green, arrested in the roundup by the police of an alleged band of bogus check workers, have prison records, according to information received by Sheriff J. T. Miles from the federal identification bureau at Fort Leavenworth. The fingerprints of the two men were taken by Deputy Sheriff Louis Eschels and sent to Leavenworth.

The telegram received from Special Agent Rene said "Garfield is Clyde Garrett with police record 246 at Oklahoma City. As Clarence E. Jackson he served two terms in the state reformatory, Hutchinson, Kansas, number 2863 and has police record number 439 at Muskogee, Michigan. Green is identified as Earnest Smith, number 3288, Missouri State penitentiary, has police record at Kansas City, St. Joe and Omaha.

Green is said to have admitted to the federal authorities that his real name is Smith. Garfield has stuck to his name since placed under arrest.

The two men are held to answer in a federal court after preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Edwin F. Jones yesterday. Their bonds were fixed at $5000 and the two women, Mamie Ward and Mrs. Bertha Stock, were ordered detained as witnesses under bond of $500. Judge Jones stated efforts would be made to have them placed in the care of some probation officer in order not to hold them in jail.

Both women were placed on the witness stand in yesterday's hearing. Mamie Ward admitted she had been married but did not know what had become of her husband. She said she met Garfield in Kansas and all four members of the party moved about together and finally settled in San Antonio for a time. Mrs. Stock substantiated her story but added they had stopped for a while in Denver before going to San Antonio. From San Antonio, the party moved westward to Douglas and then here, she said.

The women at first were unable to remember the paths of their journey but when warned by Judge Jones that perjury charge could be brought against them, their memory improved.

ELECTION FREAK

BETS SHOWING UP

RAY, Aug. 18.—The second freak election bet recorded in Arizona was made a few days ago, between E. A. Eusey, president of the chamber of commerce of this city and also manager of the local branch of A. Stienfeld, and Jake Steager a local realtor. Should senator Harding be defeated Eusey is to push Steager, in any vehicle, to the Ray railroad station, about one and one half miles from the business district. It is understood that the loser of the wager will wear passionate pink pajamas. Steager is a strong adherent of Cox and considerable interest in being manifested in the wager.

The first election bet was made at Patagonia several weeks ago between Doc Chenette, owner of a drug store, and a Harding supporter, and Kent Fryer a local man. The loser of the wager is to push the other over the mountain road to Nogales, a distance of 21 miles in a wheelbarrow and purchase a drink across the border. The Patagonia wager was the first freak bet recorded and has been given wide publicity.

Flagstaff—One carload of baby fish to be planted in state lakes and streams.

SOUTH ARIZONA TO FORM

ROAD BODY, NOGALES

DOUGLAS, Aug. 18.—At a joint meeting of officers and directors of the Warren District Commercial club and the Douglas chamber of commerce and mines, held late yesterday afternoon, the two bodies agreed on a calling of a convention to be held in Nogales, Saturday September 11, to organize the Southern Good Roads association.

According to word received in Douglas, Bisbee, Casa Grande, Yuma, Ajo, Benson and various other towns throughout southern Arizona are anxious to enlist their efforts in such an association.

A motion was made and adopted to select five delegates from each city council, chamber of commerce, business organizations and the board of supervisors of each county of southern Arizona. The Douglas and Bisbee chamber secretaries will handle the preliminaries.

"It is important to eliminate the proposed highway commission measure which is an initiated bill to be voted on in November," J. J. Bowen, a member of the meeting stated yesterday.

"The balance of power would be held by northern Arizona, as they have three representatives to only two in southern Arizona. This was in spite of the fact that southern Arizona's assessed valuation was $536,748,000 as compared with $318,476,000 in northern Arizona. The road money would be spent as the commissioners saw fit and a majority of them would represent the northern part of the state."

RETIREMENT OF RAMSDELL

WILL NOT EFFECT FIGHT,

TUCSON, Aug. 18.—W. R. Ramsdell being in or out of the senatorial race will not affect the fight at all, Senator Marcus A. Smith, said yesterday after his arrival in Tucson, where he will remain several days before continuing on his trip over the state in the interests of his campaign.

"I see that Ramsdell has taken occasion in his fleeing shot to say that my return to the senate would be an undeserved triumph for the big mining companies and the railroad corporations and a deadly blow to government of the people. This gratuitous statement has been made so frequently that sensible men have ceased to pay any attention to it," Senator Smith said.

"The labor record I have made in congress is satisfactory to any reasonable man interested in the prosperity of the laboring people. But I am too busy now to give further attention to these oft repeated and malicious falsehoods. It is enough for me to say once for all that never in my political life have I received one dollar as aid from any corporation in the United States or elsewhere."

Senator Smith said he was much encouraged over the outlook of his campaign. He has been over the northern counties and has found his old friends promising their support. He is also encouraged by the looks of the situation in Tucson. He will spend several days here and will go to Nogales and thence to Cochise and Graham counties in the interest of his campaign.

Senator Smith was optimistic over General Cox's chances. "Democrats who are well acquainted with the national possibilities have appeared to me to be confident of a Democratic victory. They believe that Senator Harding will weaken over the strain of the campaign. They see in the Republican presidential nominee the reincarnation of that Republican party which was headed by Mark Hanna and others, the party against whom Roosevelt rebelled and fought. Therefore many of the Republicans will be unable to support such a nominee."

U. S. HOSPITAL ATTACHE

STOLE FROM ARMY

PHOENIX, Aug. 19.—Following the discovery of a Phoenix warehouse of 15 crates and boxes declared to by agents of the department of justice to have been stolen from the government, E. V. ## REPORT DEATH OF

OLD MAN FROM HEAT

PHOENIX, Aug. 17.—Word was brought to the sheriff's office last night concerning the man said to have been found dead on the desert last Tuesday, and Sheriff Montgomery with Deputy Sheriff Blanco left immediately to investigate the case.

According to the report given Sheriff Montgomery, a boy rode a motorcycle into Agua Caliente last Tuesday and said his partner, an elderly man, had succumbed to the heat of the desert. He is said to have told officers in Agua Caliente that the man had been making a trip from California with him on the motorcycle and had been complaining of the heat for several days previous to the collapse. The old man was without arms and clung to the motorcycle with hooks while the boy did the driving.

Officers here hinted that there was a possibility of new developments, however, as a rumor reached them that the old man was carrying considerable money and papers of value. When the body was searched only $5 was found, according to the report. Telephone and telegraph communication is out of commission between here and Agua Caliente, so the officers were unable to get further details of the case last night. They expect to conduct a thorough investigation today.

CATTLEMEN COMING TO ### DOUGLAS FOR MEETING

DOUGLAS, Aug. 18.—The date has been fixed for the meeting of the Cochise-Graham Cattlemen's convention in this city and has been announced as September 3 and 4. This association is composed of the prominent cattlemen of both Cochise and Graham counties and holds meetings twice a year for the purpose of considering the mutual interests of the stockmen. For several years this association has been alternating their meetings between Wilcox and Safford, but at the meeting at Wilcox last spring at the urgent request of J. T. Hood and the chamber of commerce of this city, it was agreed to meet in Douglas next month.

The local chamber of commerce and mines will at an early meeting take the necessary steps to provide a program of entertainment for the stockmen during their visit here. Just what the entertainment will consist of is not yet known, but by all means, there should be a grand ball at which the noted terpsychorean artists among the cowmen would have an opportunity to show their activity. Such men as Billy Riggs, Henry Street and Tom Hood could be slated for a contest in an old fashioned "hoedown" that would be of great interest to those present.

COOPERATIVE STORE

INVOLVED IN SUIT

TUCSON, Aug. 18.—All books and records of the Pacific Co-operative League, Inc., of which the Tucson Co-operative store is a branch, have been ordered brought into the Seattle superior court pending final hearing for a receiver was filed several weeks ago by the Farmers' Warehouse association, alleging unpaid debts amounting to $2,661.93. A. Einnaus, former auditor, was appointed temporary receiver by the court.

T. W. Donnelly, manager of the Tucson Co-operative store, said the application for receivership will not effect the local store. He said the suit concerns only a few stores in Seattle which had received help from the league but had never become affiliated with the organization.

"I received information from the headquarters of the league stating that one of our promoters had attempted to save a group of independent stores in Seattle, to bring them to solvency and when solvent to have them affiliate with the league," Mr. Donnelly said. Unfortunately these stores did not conform to our instructions and seemed to go backward. The communication advised me that these stores are being circularized as the stores of the Pacific Co-operative League which runs a chain of stores in California and other western states.

Chandler—Rebuilding of Brooks service station under way.

CANTU PROMISES TO TURN

OVER HIS OFFICE TODAY

MEXICALI, Aug. 18.—Arrangements for transfer of governorship of the northern district of Lower California from Estaban Cantu who has been in revolt for the past three weeks, to General Luis E. Salazar tomorrow, virtually were complete tonight.

Governor Cantu today authorized the statement that General Salazar would succeed him in the governorship tomorrow.

It was stated messages, received from Mexico City, were of such a nature as to cause Colonel Cantu to decide to accept them as final instead of waiting, as had been planned, for the arrival from the capital of General Salazar's commission as governor. It was announced that Cantu soon would assume his colony in the Mexican army and that meantime he would visit Mexico City as the guest of Vice Alsece Robles, editor of El Democrita and brother of M. Alsece Robles, private secretary to Adolfo de la Huerta, provisional president. Vice Alsece Robles has been participating in the negotiations here.

General Salazar and Governor Cantu gave Senor Robles a large share of the credit for arranging the transfer of the office.

General Salazar and Senor Robles were quoted as expressing themselves as "impressed with the cordiality, patriotism and loyalty" of Colonel Cantu in final negotiations.

Virtually all the Cantu appointees will be retained by the new governor, it was announced. It was added that his policy toward existing gambling and other concessions in the district would not be promulgated formally, pending further advice from Mexico City. It was pointed out, however, that the provisional government had gone on record as opposed to gambling and vice.

MACHINERY ARRIVES.

The air compressor, drills and other machinery to be used in removing the rock points from the Bisbee-Tombstone state highway in Tombstone canyon passed through town today enroute to the scene on the divide. This work will be started at once and rushed to a finish under the supervision of County Engineer Sid Smyth and in conjunction with the State Highway Department which arrangement was reached some time ago between the supervisors and County Engineer Smyth when they made a trip to Phoenix, recently, to confer with State Highway Engineer Thomas Maddock. Many persons who travel this road will have a sigh of relief when they see the last of the rock points removed. Although there have been many near accidents of a serious nature and some slight accidents and some property damage caused by the presence of these rock pits, the mystery is that more serious accidents have not occurred.

The remainder were camped on the dry bed of the creek. They were forced to flee when the flood swept down upon them, abandoning their possessions. There was no loss of life, however.

DOUGLAS, Aug. 18.—Joe Hood announced his resignation as cattle inspector of the Arizona livestock sanitary board for this district which is No. 31. His resignation, he said, would be effective September 1. Mr. Hood stated that his campaign as candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff and subsequent campaign for election—he is now the only candidate for the Republican nomination—would take up so much of his time that he could not continue as livestock inspector.

BODY OF MAN FOUND

IN POND NEAR BORDER

After leaving San Luis, Mr. Blade started for Gadsden up the railroad train and then disappeared. No trace has been found of his clothes. It is known that he had some money and a gold watch. Murder is suspected but no evidence has been obtained which would convict the guilty party or parties. This is the third party found near the border line this year, each stripped of all clothing. The other two were found near Andrade.

GET MAN ON INTERSTATE

CHARGE FOR AUTO THEFT

Henke, on a charge of violating the interstate commerce act in the manner outlined above. Hawthorne pleaded guilty and was held to the United States district court. He was placed in the county jail under $1500 bond. ## HOP! IS CALLED

ARIZONA JAPANESE

PHOENIX, Aug. 16.—The Hopi Indian is the Japanese of America according to Governor Campbell. The governor said the Hopi resembles the Japanese in size, somewhat in appearance and very much in energy.

The Hopis, who live in northern Arizona have taken up the white man's language, dress and customs, the governor said. They have proved excellent farmers and in addition, some of them have motor trucks and are engaged in motor freight traffic.

Unlike other Indians, the Indians of the Hopi tribe do not leave all menial labor to the squaws. The Hopi not only works in the fields and elsewhere in the open, but also washes the dishes, does the housework and performs other domestic offices, Governor Campbell said.
